

I can help you change your life.... by changing how you experience work

Finding JOY in your work!

I am so very grateful for every professional opportunity I have been given. And yet, not every opportunity I accepted was the best fit for me. While considered a wildly successful rise in corporate America, my career path was not guided by my key motivators and what brings me joy in my work. At a particularly poignant moment I became aware, quite literally, it was hard for me to breathe. The gap between what I was experiencing and the work experiences that help me flourish was HUGE!

Flourishing In Your Career Finding the Work You Love

Our connection with our work is a critical part of our connection with Self. More and more people are looking beyond their pay check and asking "what impact do I want to have?", "how can I have more fun in my work?" and "what is my legacy?".

Based on Teacher's Pet: Clarity, Choice and Action in Your Career, co-written by Bradley, this customized coaching package will help you -

- explore and strengthen the connections you crave with your work
- identify the steps needed to redesign your career to obtain maximum success and satisfaction at work and at home
- enjoy a 1-hour Discovery Session to get the coaching off to a fast start and 4-half-hour sessions ($650)

Changing the Way You Experience Work Clarity, Choice and Action in Your Career

This 3 month program is customized to support you in making the changes you crave in your work experience. What do you want to be different? Or maybe you can't answer that question yet. In either case, in 90 days, with coaching support you will -

- increase your clarity using proven assessments
- identify what can get in your way and work to remove the blocks
- get into action with a plan built on your choices
- enjoy a 2-hour Discovery Session to get the coaching off to a fast start and 9 one-hour sessions ($3,000)
